

Notice of Faculty Opening 2010-2011
FULL-TIME FACULTY POSITION IN:

Teacher Education Program

Responsibilities:

Applicant should be willing to teach a range of courses in his or her discipline--including educational theory, pedagogy, and practica. Duties include student advisement, student teacher and fieldwork supervision, and committee work.

Qualifications/Requirements:

An earned Ph.D. or Ed.D. with prior teaching experience--optimally at both graduate and undergraduate levels. Experience in inclusive and special education settings, urban and/or high needs schools, and collaborative teaching would be helpful to meeting the goals and objectives of the program.

Concordia College-New York seeks applicants who are dedicated to teaching excellence and who can contribute to both the liberal arts tradition and the Lutheran values of the College.

The search for this faculty position will remain open until the right candidate is identified. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Applications should include a statement of teaching interest, curriculum vita, and three letters of recommendation and be submitted to:
