MUSICAL ADVENTURES FOR CHILDREN CONCERT

The Magical Mad Lib Adventure

by Rami Vamos

Saturday, February 6 11:00 am

The concert is held in Schoenfeld Campus Center, Concordia College

Herman Shinklenose must write his own musical Mad Libs to solve a very interesting mystery and needs help with these tricky puzzles. Join us for this 45-minute performance designed to educate and entertain, starring Concordia Conservatory faculty and students.

Tickets: $20 adult/$10 child and senior

Discounts are available for groups of 10 or more.

To purchase, call (914) 395-4507 or visit www.concordiaconservatory.org

Musical Adventures Winter Break Mini-Camp

February 16-19

Tuesday-Friday | Time: 9:00-12:00 | Ages: 4-5 and 6-7

Brighten your child's mornings with this music, theatre, literature, and art mini-camp with the Concordia Conservatory Early Childhood music faculty. Campers start the day at 9am with a musical story-telling adventure, followed by music and art classes that incorporate the "musical adventure" of the day. Each morning includes a snack and game time. Camp ends at 12 noon.

Tuition: $210

Early Childhood Classes

Classes begin January 19 • 15 classes per session

Concordia Conservatory offers a variety of music classes for babies to kindergarteners to develop children's imaginations, musical awareness, and expressiveness.

To enroll, return the enclosed registration form, fee, and tuition. We will mail a confirmation of your child's class, teacher, and schedule upon receipt of registration form and payment.

Tuition is fully refunded if student withdraws before the start of the first class. Please review "General Information" on page 12 of the Concordia Conservatory Catalog for Conservatory policies.

Registration fee: $35 fee (non-refundable)

This 45-minute Kindermusik™ class, designed for children 18 months to 3 years and a parent/care-giver, provides experience in singing, moving, listening, and playing simple instruments. At the beginning of each semester, families receive full-color picture books illustrating many of the themes, songs, and activities; a companion songbook, and musical parenting guide.
